IN RE:  LTDS CORPORATION,  Complainant,  vs.  QWEST CORPORATION,  Respondent.	DOCKET NO.  FCU-03-51
---	-----------------------

ORDER REGARDING REBUTTAL TESTIMONY

(Issued March 25, 2004)

On March 23, 2004, Qwest Corporation (Qwest) filed rebuttal testimony and exhibits of Mr. Elmer Craig Morris. On pages 4 and 9 of his testimony, Mr. Morris refers to Qwest's wholesale product catalog (PCAT) and provides an Internet address for the PCAT. The filing did not include a hard copy of the PCAT as an exhibit. It is not clear from the testimony whether Qwest intends that the PCAT be considered a part of the record. References to Internet sites are not sufficient to include the referenced item in the record, because it is not clear what is to be included in the record, and there is no filing with the Board's Records and Information Center as required by the Board's rules. If Qwest intends that all or a part of the PCAT be included in the record in this case, it must file hard copies with the Board as an exhibit sponsored by a witness. 199 IAC 1.8. It appears from the testimony on page 4 that Exhibit ECM-200 is a part of the PCAT. Qwest does not need to refile Exhibit ECM-200 if it is the only part of the PCAT Qwest intends to include in the record.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

If Qwest intends that all or a part of the PCAT (other than Exhibit ECM-200) be included in the record in this case, it must file hard copies with the Board as an exhibit sponsored by a witness.
